What Are Sweepstakes Aggregators?

Sweepstakes aggregators are websites where you can find a list of active sweepstakes. We all love to enter to win prizes for free. By getting access to all of the active sweepstakes in one place, you can enter to win prizes every single day!

Sweepstakes aggregators are websites that contain a list of sweepstakes and giveaways that save you time. By not having to actually search for sweepstakes and giveaways, you'll be able to enter more sweepstakes and get access to the best legitimate sweepstakes and giveaways.

How Do Online Sweepstakes and Giveaways Work?

It depends on who is running the sweepstakes or giveaway. But most of the time, you complete an entry form via the brand's sweepstakes website. Your entry will be randomly selected for the grand prize. Some sweepstakes and giveaways also include instant win games that allow you to find out if you've won instantly or they give smaller prizes, such as a discount or coupon for playing the game.

How Do I Win Online Sweepstakes and Giveaways?

There is no guarantee of winning a sweepstakes or giveaway because the winners are drawn at random. However, if you follow these tips, you help increase your odds of winning a prize:

1. Enter Multiple Sweepstakes and Giveaways

Simply entering one sweepstakes isn't likely to make you a winner. However, if you enter multiple sweepstakes and giveaways daily, weekly or monthly, you'll increase the chances that you will win at least a small prize. Sweepers, or people who enter sweepstakes and contests as a hobby, typically use sweepstakes aggregators every day to find and enter new giveaways.

Pro tip: The best sweepstakes to enter often are those that don't attract as many entrants if you want to win.

2. Create a Dedicated Email and Social Media Account for Sweeping

Using your main email address for sweeping is not recommended as you are likely to start receiving a lot of emails from brands. As a result, if you plan to enter online sweepstakes, contests, and giveaways regularly, you should create dedicated email and social media accounts just for entering sweepstakes.

3. Read the Official Rules

The Official Rules will tell you whether or not you are actually eligible to participate in a sweepstakes or giveaway. Don't assume that just because you can access the sweepstakes entry form that you are eligible to enter. A sweepstakes or contest may be void in your jurisdiction due to local laws. So you should make sure you read the Official Rules first.

The Official Rules are also useful to review so that you know what to expect if you become a sweepstakes winner. For example, some sweepstakes winners like to substitute sweepstakes prizes for cash. Prize substitution may or may not be permitted according to the sweepstakes rules so read them in order to avoid ending up with a prize that you don't want.

4. Keep Track of Sweepstakes End Dates

If you enter a sweepstakes or contest, it's essential that you keep track of the end dates of these promotions so that you can check to see if you've won. If you're really serious, you can set up calendar reminders and use a spreadsheet to keep track of the sweepstakes and giveaways you've entered, as well as, prizes you've won.

5. Avoid Scams

The above list provides you access to legit sweepstakes and giveaways. However, you should always take care to check to ensure that a giveaway is a legitimate promotion before you enter, pay a fee or share any personal information.
